

THE GLENVIEW BLAZE TRAVEL BASEBALL ORGANIZATION

The Glenview Blaze Travel Baseball Organization has adopted policies pertaining to good sportsmanship and to playing time, which each parent must agree to and sign before their child can participate in the Travel Baseball Organization. Again, this form should be signed by both parents (on the same form is acceptable).

SPORTSMANSHIP: The Travel Organization has adopted and will strenuously enforce a zero tolerance policy with respect to manager, coach, player and spectator behavior whereby no unsportsmanlike or otherwise offensive conduct will be tolerated. The managers and coaches for each Travel Team shall strictly enforce this policy and are responsible for the conduct of themselves, their players, their team parents, and other spectators. In the event that a umpire, coach, manager or any Travel Organization Committee Member determines in his/her sole discretion, that anyone has engaged in unsportsmanlike or otherwise offensive conduct directed towards player, manager, coach, umpire or other spectator, that person may be ejected from the ballpark, and they must leave immediately upon being requested to do so. All such situations may also be referred to The Travel Organizations Disciplinary Committee for further action as appropriate under the circumstances, which shall be the final arbiter of all disciplinary actions.

PLAYING TIME: Travel Baseball is a more intense and competitive environment, with more importance on winning and competing compared to a typical house league format. The Travel Baseball Organization will not adopt equal playing time for all players. Managers will decide playing time for their individual players. The Travel Committee however encourages all managers to do their best to utilize their entire rosters as often as possible. Parents must also understand that Managers, Coaches, and "Team Parents" will not discuss playing time issues, which may arise during the season. Questions or concerns should be addressed to the Glenview Blaze Board of Directors.
